SEUKET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Monday - 9 August 1971

25X1

25X1A

25X1

25X1A

25X1 25X1A Page 2

6. GLC) Left with George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, a FMSAC commentary on Michael Getler's column in the Washington Post of 5 August on the subject of Communist China's 25 MRBM program.  8. GLC) of Logistics, advised of a query which the now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws an Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of									;	STA
8. GLC) of Logistics, advised of a query which the absolute from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws an Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
8. GLC) of Logistics, advised of a query which the absolute from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws an Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
8. GLC) of Logistics, advised of a query which the absolute from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws an Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of	in t	mic Er he Was	hington	aff, a FN	MSAC co	nmentar	y on Mich	ael Getler	's column
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
of a query which the, now a subsidiary of has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of
has received from Senator McClellan's Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of	4				GLC)			-	cs, advise	ed 1
Procedures, Judiciary Committee. The inquiry asked for information about the volume and character of surveillance equipment manufactured and sold by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of		-			· McClell				inal Laws	 and by the company, the type of advertising for this equipment, and the classes of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of	Pro	cedure	s, Judio	ciary Co	mmittee.	The inc	quiry ask	ed for info	rmation al	bou of individuals or organizations with whom the company deals. Since there is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of						-	· -
is no request in the current letter from McClellan for the identification of	•			• •		_	_	-
	is n	o requ	est in th	e currer	nt letter	from Mc	Clellan fo	r the iden	tification o individual recipients and since the material itself is not classified, we suggested that respond to the query routinely without any			-	nts and s

SECRET

ments or problems on this.

reference to the Agency. Collins will keep us advised of any further develop-